I'm Feeling Lucky

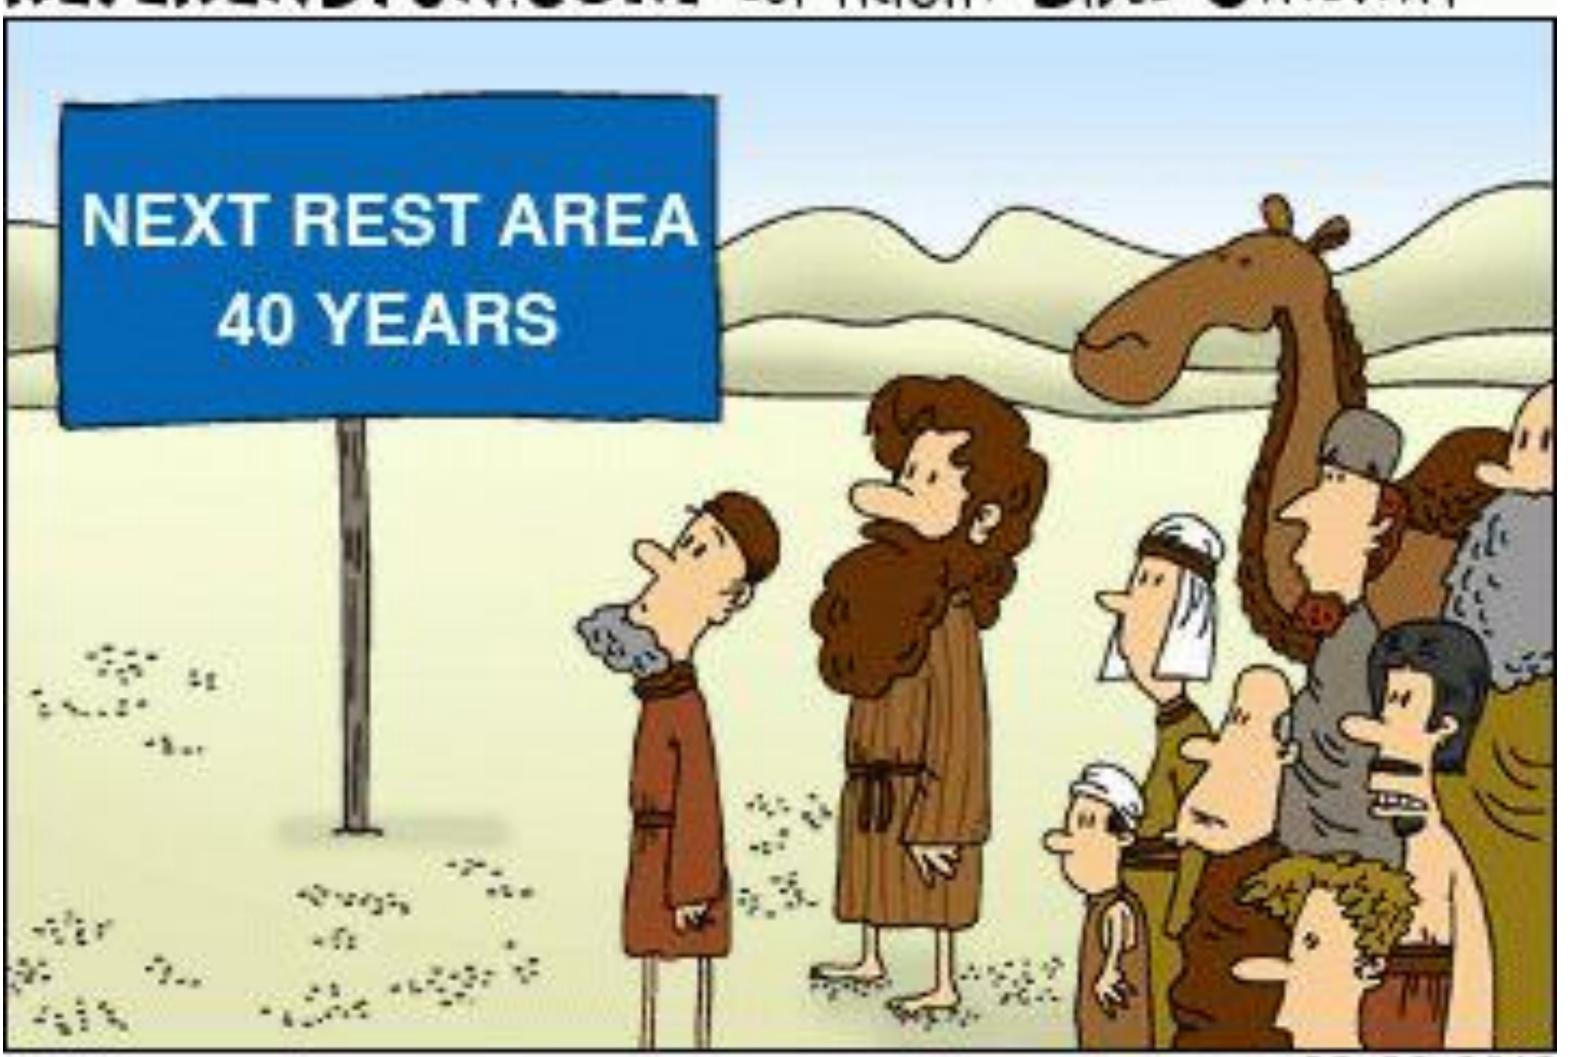

"You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day."

We are not to rely on our own power, but on God.

"Beware lest you say in your heart,

'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth."

When all our needs are met, it is easy to forget that everything we have is from God. We have to continue to depend on Him and seek His guidance.

We are not to rely on our own power, but on God.

God gives us the power to produce wealth.

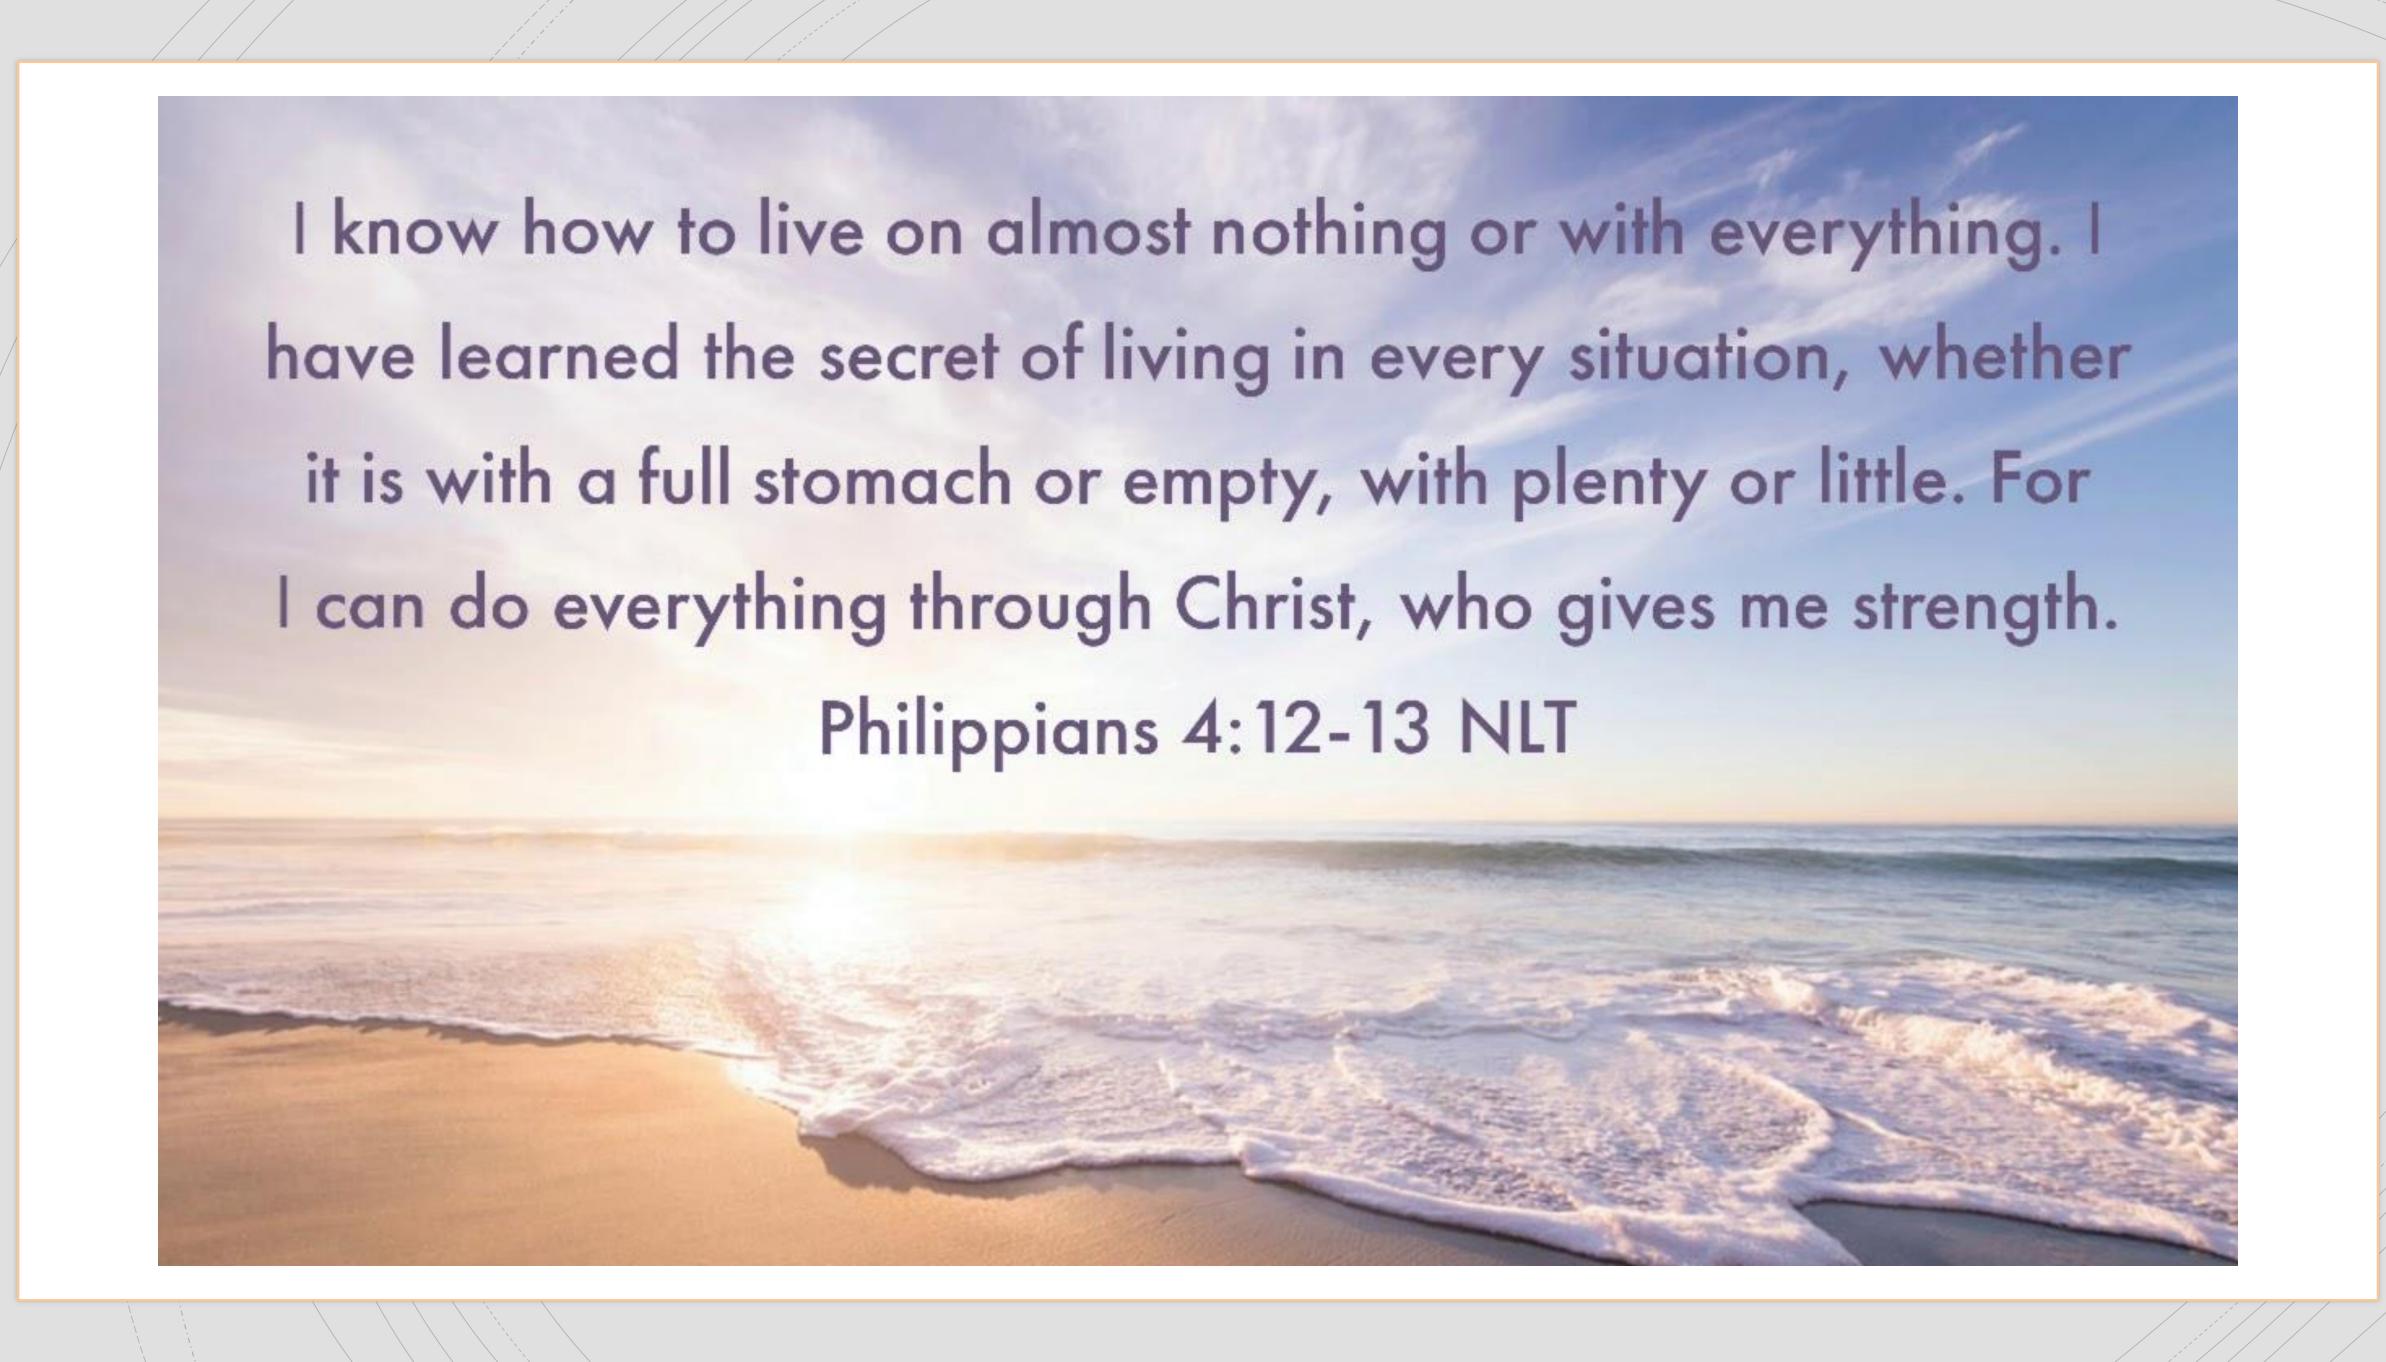

"You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth . . ."

God wants us to come to Him and acknowledge His presence in our lives not just in times of lack, but also in times of plenty.

Have you gone through ONE 2 ONE?

Best read with someone who can walk you through the book, ONE 2 ONE is a good tool to help you start right in your walk with God.

God gives us the power to produce wealth.

This power is a confirmation of His covenant.

"You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day."

God is faithful and will always be true to His promises. In the same way that He was faithful to the Israelites, we can be assured that God will faithfully provide for anyone who trusts in Him.

This power is a confirmation of His covenant.

Lord,

I need Your help today.

Remind me in every challenge, that it's not by might, nor by power, but byYour Spirit that I have victory!
