

LIGHT FOR THE NATIONS

THE MISSION ——— CONTINUES

5 And now the Lord says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him;
and that Israel might be gathered to him—
for I am honored in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength—

6 he says:
“It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel;
I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.”

7 Thus says the Lord,
the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nation,
the servant of rulers:
“Kings shall see and arise;
princes, and they shall prostrate themselves;
because of the Lord, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

The Restoration of Israel

8 Thus says the Lord:
“In a time of favor I have answered you;
in a day of salvation I have helped you;
I will keep you and give you
as a covenant to the people, to establish the land,
to apportion the desolate heritages,

WHAT MAKES A “GOOD NEWS” A GOOD NEWS?

⁷ How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of happiness, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns.”

1. What's the GOOD NEWS?
2. Why is it a GOOD NEWS?
3. How do we respond to the GOOD NEWS?

9 He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.

The Nation of Judah became:

1. Desolated

2. Dead

3. Doomed

Isaiah 52:7 (NIV)

21 Do not turn away after useless idols.
They can do you no good, nor they can rescue you, because they are useless.

This is what SIN does.

1. Desolates

2. Doom

3. Death

²³ For the wages of sin is death, . . .

23 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.

14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee proclaiming the good news of God. 15 “The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!”

“The gospel is the good news that God became man in Jesus Christ. He lived the life we should have lived and died the death we should have died – in our place. Three days later He rose from the dead, proving that He is the Son of God and offering the gift of salvation to those who repent and believe in Him.”

3. How do we respond to the GOOD NEWS?

¹³ for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

14 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”
