GALATIANS 4:4-5

Dec 21

The Bible teaches that keeping promises is a serious matter of integrity, emphasizing that one must fulfill their commitments, and it is better not to make a promise than to break one (Numbers 30:2, Ecclesiastes 5:4–5). Jesus advises that one's "yes" should be "yes" and "no" should be "no" to avoid the need for oaths and extra-biblical swearing (Matthew 5:33–37). When it is mos

Sermon Series Overview

Galatians 4:4-5

“But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.”

This Christmas, we'll reflect on Galatians 4:4–5 and the true meaning of Jesus' coming into the world. Scripture reminds us that Jesus, being fully God and fully man, was sent at the perfect time, at great cost, with a clear purpose—not only to redeem us from sin, but to adopt us into God's family. As we prepare to give and receive gifts this year, let us not forget that Christ Himself is the ultimate Christmas gift. Let every heart prepare Him room.

Rejoicing with you,

Elder TJ

Sermon Notes

Discussion Questions

- 1. In what ways do you see God directing the affairs of the world so that Jesus came at just the right moment in history (“the fullness of time”)? Where in your own life have you struggled to trust God’s sovereign control, and how have you learned—or are you learning—to wait patiently?
- 2. Summarize the hypostatic union of Christ (fully God and fully man) and discuss how a better understanding of each nature has increased your worship of Him.
- 3. What does it mean that Christ redeemed us, how did He redeem us, and how has this redemption impacted your present life?
- 4. According to Galatians 4:5, what was God’s ultimate goal in sending His Son, in what ways are you enjoying the benefits of that work, and how does it shape your relationship with and commitment to the local church?

Prayer & Praise

End your time together by reflecting on the goodness of God and praying for one another.
